PROCEEDINGS

I understand they can't agree.

 $\ensuremath{\mathsf{MS}}$. KOMATIREDDY: Your Honor, we have a partial agreement.

With respect to the testimony of Rey in relation to a submarine seizure, the parties have agreed on two pages of testimony, which Rey testified about a submarine that he had investigated on behalf of the Sinaloa Cartel.

Our disagreement as to the first request of the testimony of Conejo in relation to the submarine seizure, there are approximately seven lines of testimony in Proveda-Ortega's direct that relates to doing submarine shipments in the amount of approximately 5,500 to 7,000 kilos, which we elicited because it was in relation to the same amount and type of shipment that was seized and is corroborative.

My understanding, and we have a disagreement with counsel, because the note specifically states "seizure by the Coast Guard," and Proveda-Ortega did not state that this was a seizure by the Coast Guard, which is true.

However, we would submit that this is testimony responsive to the jury's request, because it is in relation to submarine shipments, and is likely what they -- one of them took down as a note during Conejo's testimony and it, again, is the purpose of eliciting it was that these two do match up in the description of the submarines used to transport cocaine

So I'm going to sustain the objection, and the parties should put together the remaining portions and we'll bring those in.

We are in recess.

MR. de CASTRO: Judge, I'm sorry, before you do that.

And the other thing is we were sort of talking about for a second was whether we tell the jury that there's something that it's not -- we haven't done this in the past, that there is not testimony responsive to your question. I don't know if that's sort of -- we just started talking about

Case 1:19-cr-00576-BMC Document 237 Filed 03/21/23 Page 10 of 19 PageID #: 15729 PROCEEDINGS 2038 1 note that says you have reached a unanimous verdict. 2 I will again ask Juror Number 1: Is it correct that 3 you have reached a unanimous verdict? 4 THE FOREPERSON: Yes. 5 THE COURT: All right. 6 Mr. Scott, will you please retrieve the verdict form 7 from Juror Number 1? 8 Ladies and gentlemen, what I'm going to do now is 9 called "publishing the verdict". That simply means that I'm 10 going to read it out loud. 11 It's very important that you all listen carefully to 12 the way I read it, because either side, when it's done, has 13 the right to have me ask each of your individually if, in 14 fact, it represents your true and accurate verdict. 15 As to Count Two, the jury has checked -- that's the 16 international cocaine distribution conspiracy, the jury has checked "quilty".

As to the question under that count: Has the government proved beyond a reasonable doubt that the offense involved 5 kilograms or more of cocaine? The jury has checked "yes".

As To Count Three, cocaine distribution and possession conspiracy. The jury has checked "quilty".

reason why I should not dismiss them with the thanks of the Court?

MR. de CASTRO: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right, ladies and gentlemen, I told you when I gave you the final charge at the end of the case that I had no opinion on how the case should come out. That was true. And I still have no opinion on how the case should come out. That was entirely left up to you.

But what I will tell you is having watched you and the way you observed all the witnesses and all the testimony so carefully, and really with no lagging in attention or anything, I have to say you did a remarkable job.

You know, when you do a job like this, it brings you closer to our system of democracy than anything else you're going to do, even voting. And when you vote, you're one of many millions of votes. But when you determine the faith of someone who sits in this trial, that's the most important thing, as I said before, that you'll probably undertake for a long time.

You know, a lot of countries, they don't allow this to happen. They have judges being the finder of the facts.

There are very few, actually, countries that would put this kind of case to a jury. But we do it because we trust you.

We trust your common sense. We trust your hard work. And we have confidence that -- again, not common thing at all whether Anything further we need to do before we adjourn?

MR. de CASTRO: Judge, I'm not sure if we're going to file a Rule 29 or 33 motion, but can you set a schedule for
